

WILL ALL ATTEND.

A COUPLE OF HUNDRED SOPHOMORES WHO WILL

Attend the Freshmen's Glee at the Gymnasium Tonight and They are not Wanted.

Say They Will All Attend.

The Freshmen at the State University, according to college custom, will hold a glee in the gymnasium tonight. They have informed the sophomores, their sworn enemies, that their presence is not requested, but the second year men are bold, since they broke a record by tying up the Freshies in the first rush. They like to dance, they say, especially with Freshie co-eds and are determined to do so at other people's expense whether it meets with the approval of the Freshmen or not. A few days ago the president of '99 gave notice that he would have some invitations to the glee on hand for distribution to his class at such a time and place. At the appointed hour he found some sophomores in waiting for him. They very unceremoniously deprived him of about a hundred, thinking they had enough for one day. Later, however, some one conceived the idea that it would be a huge joke to get more invitations and have the hall packed before the Freshmen made their appearance. Several heads were put together, and it was decided to get the plate on which the freshmen had their invitations printed and have 500 more struck off on the same kind of paper. Accordingly, two members of '98 took the next car for Oakland. Some one in that city telephoned to H. S. Crocker & Co. in San Francisco to have the plate ready to be called for at such a time. The answer came back that it would be ready for delivery. At the time named the plate was taken from Crocker's, a quantity of paper of the same quality as that on which the genuine invitations were printed, was procured, and in a short time another supply of invitations was ready for distribution. These were divided among the sophomores and seniors this morning, and if any are left they will be given to whosoever may signify a desire to attend the glee, as it is the intention of the sophomores to crowd the house to suffocation.

A number of sophomores will be on hand at the gymnasium in the evening in football uniform, so that if their classmates are refused admittance they will give them entry by force, if necessary.

New Buildings.

Not since the great business depression began two years ago has there been as much building going on in Berkeley as at the present time. In all sections, and especially in the eastern end of town, buildings in the course of construction can be noticed. At the business centers also improvements are being made. At Dwight way station the largest business block in town is in frame, and will be three stories in height. There is also noticeable a decided improvement in transfers in real property, and the dealers are beginning to have an air of cheerfulness quite unusual. Should the bond issue carry, as it is generally believed it will, the coming season will be one of unusual activity and progress for the University town.—Chronicle.

A fine reception was given to General Nelson A. Miles, commanding the Army of the United States, last evening at Washington. It was attended by the various Cabinet officers, members of the U. S. Supreme Court, and other high notables.

The Political Pot.

The Republican County Central Committee of Alameda county, has been called together for a special meeting to be held at 2 o'clock on Saturday next, October 19th. The meeting is called for the purpose of filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. G. McCall, the member from the Fourth ward.

The resignation of McCall was tendered soon after the last election, but it has only recently been made public. F. D. Hines and Rod Church are candidates for the vacancy, with Church in the lead.

Beacon Fire Co.

In reply to a call the members of Beacon Fire Company at the West End held a meeting Wednesday evening and transacted considerable business. Guy H. Chick, Superintendent of Streets, was present and explained matters in relations to the taking away of the hose. Mr. Chick will assist in endeavoring to get the Trustees to give the Beacon Company 250 feet more of hose. A committee was appointed for the purpose of having a ball for the purpose of raising funds to purchase a bell larger than the one now in use. Other matters concerning routine business was attended to and then the meeting adjourned.

Living Apart.

Mrs. Mabel Mills of Oakland, who was Miss Mabel Holmes, well known as the champion bloomer bicyclist of the State, will, it is said, soon commence proceedings for a divorce.

Mrs. Holmes-Mills got her name in the papers a few weeks ago by marrying a young man in San Jose by the name of Perry Mills after a courtship of less than a week. The marriage was by contract, but the couple were tightly tied in the regular way in San Francisco afterward.

The couple did not live together long, for Mrs. Holmes-Mills is now in Oakland and Mr. Mills is far away amid the orange groves in the Southern part of the State.

He will be a Priest.

John F. Duggan, a graduate of the University, is on the way to St. Paul, Minn., where he will study for the priesthood. The candidate for orders will enter Hill's Theological Seminary and will spend six years there. He graduated from the Berkeley High School with the class of '91 and entered the University the same year. He took the degree of Bachelor of Arts with the class of '95.

On leaving college the young man decided to study law, but changed his mind a few weeks ago, to the surprise of his parents, informed them that he intended to take holy orders. He is but twenty-one years old. The father of the prospective priest is a janitor in one of the college buildings, and the son has been brought up in the Catholic faith.

The case recalls the story of the troublous times in local religious circles several years ago, when Charles Ramm and Professor Greene, at that time pastor of the First Episcopal Church, were converted to the Roman Catholic faith. Ramm had graduated from the University and had been elected recorder when he announced his confession. Subsequently he went to Baltimore and entered the priesthood, while Greene became professor of botany at the University.

The campus presented a lively scene yesterday afternoon. A large crowd of Berkeley, Oakland and San Francisco people were present to watch the students drill, after which the daily football practice took place. The boys did good solid work, cheered on by the strains of the U. C. band.

HAD NO LIQUOR.

MARSHAL LLOYD RAIDS A STUDENT'S CLUB HOUSE.

But the Boys Were Prepared for His Visit and Had Nothing in Sight.

Club House Raided.

Yesterday morning Marshal Lloyd made a raid on the Belmont Club on Shattuck avenue, which is composed of University students, but he failed to secure any liquor.

The boys are very indignant over the Marshal's visit, and threaten dire vengeance.

There has been a suspicion in the minds of a great many people that more than ordinary soda water was dispensed at the Club House, so the Marshal thought he would investigate it. Had the Advocate not notified the students that the club was being watched by the Marshal, he would probably have found some of the contraband stuff.

W. B. Presbyterian Church.

In the absence of the Rev. Mr. Hunter who is attending the meetings of Synod at San Jose, the University Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the Sunday evening services. Messrs. G. M. Fisher, H. C. Symonds, H. L. Waste and B. G. Allen are expected to take part. Let everybody come and hear the students.

Property Transfers.

Quite an interesting sale of Berkeley property was made lately in the real estate office of O. G. May & Co.

Mr. John Hinkel of San Francisco bought of Prof. Gayley and Miss Norton six choice lots on the south side of Channing way, adjoining Miss Head's seminary grounds. This gives Mr. Hinkel a frontage of 150 feet on Channing way, with a depth of 300 feet, making a beautiful site for the elegant home he expects to build in the near future.

The President of the Young Women's Christian Association has appointed the following committee to assist in the convention to be held at Stiles Hall, October 25th, 26th and 27th: Miss Georgia Barker, entertainment; Miss Helm, '97, luncheon; Miss Clark, '98, Miss Maxwell, '98, reception; Miss Curtis, '98, announcements and publications.

On Thursday evening last as the GAZETTE carrier for Golden Gate was delivering his papers, he was attacked by a vicious dog and was bitten in the leg. The owner of the dog witnessed the attack, but instead of calling his dog off he laughed at the plight of the boy. As the boy had to return that way after delivering some papers further down the street, he secured a brick, and when the dog made for him again he hurled the brick with all his strength, and struck the dog fairly between the two eyes, causing its instant death. That time the owner did not laugh, but he tried to inflict punishment upon the boy, but could not catch him.

The Hanging.

San Quentin, Oct. 18.—The men who are to die this afternoon, at 10 o'clock are as cool and unconcerned as though they had a long future ahead of them.

The final arrangements connected with the scaffold were completed this morning at a little after 10 o'clock. The rest of the time of those who were connected with the execution was spent in waiting for the fatal hour of 2 o'clock to arrive, so that they could get through with the execution. United States Marshal Barry Baldwin came over this morning on the 9 o'clock boat, accompanied by Detective N. L. Harris and the deputies who were to assist him in the execution. The Marshal at once inspected the machinery of death and found that the rope had been properly stretched and soaped and that all the details had been properly arranged.

The condemned men got up this morning at 6:30 and ate their breakfast, but neither one of them had much of an appetite and ate but little of what was spread before them. St. Clair expressed his faith in the Catholic church and said that he was at peace and had no fears for the future and that he had forgiven his enemies.

He spent the greater part of the morning, after eating his breakfast, in writing a statement for the newspapers, which he desired to have published and telegraphed all over the world.

He made the startling statement that the reason that reporters were to be excluded was because Hansen had requested Marshal Baldwin to keep the reporters out, and he had promised to do so, and that the question of his having received the orders from Washington was all bosh.

As the hour for this execution approached he showed no nervousness but kept on with his writing for the press.

Hansen after breakfast had his regular smoke and chatted with the death watch upon different topics but not about the hanging. He told them of several incidents of his life and at 9 o'clock he was informed that the Rev. Mr. Drahm and the Rev. Mr. Peterson, a Danish minister, desired to talk with him. He at once asked that they be admitted and when they entered his cage he shook them warmly by the hand. He told them that he had no fear of the gallows as he was innocent, having had no hand in the murder of Fitzgerald. He would die in the Baptist faith, and was so glad that he would soon plunge into the unknown realms of the next world.

A committee representing 5000 Danes on the Pacific Coast telegraphed President Cleveland this morning asking for a pardon or reprieve for Hansen. Some of them told him this morning that they were hopeful of getting a favorable answer, and he replied that he wanted no reprieve. Unless he could have an unconditional pardon he wanted to be executed as soon as possible.

At 2 o'clock the men were led to the scaffold, the button was pressed and they were launched into eternity. Both men died game.

TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1895.

ARE NOT SINCERE.

Column after column has been written in the various papers of the State in reference to the Manufacturers' and Producers' Association, and its aims. Also telling how much benefit would be derived by the State if only goods grown in California or of California manufacture were used by the public.

The ideas of the Association are good, and if they were carried out would result in much benefit to the merchants and to the people generally. The ideas are not carried out, however, by the merchants of San Francisco, for while they are members of the association they will not purchase goods made in California if they can get them for a little less in the East.

It is simply a game of grab with the San Francisco merchants. They want everything for themselves and at no cost. Through the Association they have got thousands of dollars worth of free advertising from the newspapers of the State, which has brought them thousands of dollars in trade, as the people generally thought they were sincere, and made it a practice to purchase only goods of California manufacture.

In the meantime, however, these San Francisco merchants, through the Association, have been and are now getting columns of free advertising at the expense of the deluded newspaper men. When their acts were criticised some time ago a grand gallery play was made to the effect that they would all advertise and that it would be done through the Association. If any of them have advertised or if the Association has sent out any advertising matter except what they asked free publication we have failed to note it.

It is not because we have not received advertising that this article is written but to show that the Manufacturers' and Producers' Association is a fraud whose only aim is to get something for nothing.

In West Berkeley there are two oil factories that manufacture large quantities of oil and give employment to a number of men, yet very little of the products of these factories find their way into San Francisco until after it has gone East in its purity and come back adulterated. This we can prove.

A few weeks ago the proprietor of the Eureka Oil Works went to San Francisco and called on some prominent business men for the purpose of selling them oil. He showed them samples of his oil, which was pure, and contrasted it with what they had from the East. These men admitted that the West Berkeley product was much superior to what they were handling, but they absolutely refused to purchase it unless they could get it one cent less than what they could purchase it for in the East.

The names of these men appear upon the membership roll of the Manufacturers and Producers' Association, yet they will not purchase California products unless they can get them cheaper than eastern manufactured goods. They will not even pay the same price that they pay to eastern dealers.

The GAZETTE is in favor of everything that is Californian but it is not in favor of advertising the Manufacturers' and Producers' Association while its membership is composed of hypocrites as at the present time. When it purges itself of this class of high-binders then it can hope to succeed and it will have the support of the press of the State. We hope that this article will be taken up by our brethren of the press, and that they make inquiries in their own neighborhood and see whether the same state of affairs does exist.

WILL FIGHT THE RAILROAD.

The Southern Pacific Company have notified the Railroad Commissioners that they will pay no attention to the recent schedule of freight rates adopted by the Commissioners, consequently the matter will have to be fought in the Courts. The Railroad Commissioners have heretofore employed their own attorneys and as a usual thing the people have got the worst of the fight. In this fight, however, Attorney-General Fitzgerald states that he will do all the fighting himself. That that is what his office is for and for what he draws salary.

He is a fighter, and as he is no lover of the railroad company the people of the State can look for a fight to the finish in this matter of freight rates, and they can be assured that they will defeat the railroad company.

EVERYBODY is in favor of bonding the town for $80,000 to build a new wharf. All of our citizens can see the importance of it now, and they will put their shoulders to the wheel and never quit until the wharf has been built. With a wharf out to deep water Berkeley will forge ahead faster than any other section of the county for it will mean a number of large factories and the employment of thousands of men and women. It will mean almost double our present population, and the building of hundreds of residences in all parts of Berkeley. The eyes of a large number of capitalists are now centered upon Berkeley, and just as soon as bonds are voted for the wharf they will come here and erect factories and employ hundreds of people. The voting of these bonds means freedom from the yoke of the Southern Pacific, for then there will be a competing ferry from here to San Francisco. It means a possibility that the Valley railroad will make its terminus at West Berkeley. It means that there will be one or more electric lines running through this section of the town, and above all it means a long season of prosperity for every man, woman and child in the community. This matter should not be delayed, but should be pushed right ahead by the Board of Trustees.

If you want to purchase gent's furnishing goods, children's toys, cigars and tobacco, why, go to Abraham Cohen's on San Pablo avenue between Alcatraz and Dalton street, Golden Gate. He sells as cheap as the city.

The North Berkeley Congregational Church will give a chicken dinner and bazaar Friday evening, November 1st. Bazaar afternoon and evening. Dinner served from 6 to 8. Price 25 cents. All are welcome.

Get your watches, clocks and jewelry repaired at R. A. Curry's 2124 Center street, Berkeley. Diamonds, watches, silverware, clocks, jewelry of all kinds on hand. Work guaranteed.

Now is the time to buy your cloaks, capes and suits. By purchasing $15 worth of goods at our establishment we will present you, free of charge, with an order for one half dozen Haussler's photographs. Palace Cloak Co., 1009 and 1011 Washington street, between 10th and 11th streets, Oakland.

There is one thing in this world that in order to give satisfaction has got to be perfect, and that is a photograph. Naturally the artist who is thorough in his business and produces perfect pictures gets the trade. This accounts for the immense business done by Evans, the photographer at 1065 Washington street. He takes the finest cabinets in the land for $3 per dozen and has a large Berkeley patronage.

Gold Nuggets.
The structure of gold nuggets was the subject of a paper recently read before the New South Wales Royal Society by Professor Liverbridge. Among other facts stated was the peculiarity of such nuggets, on being cut through or sliced and polished and then etched by chlorine water, of exhibiting a well marked crystalline structure closely resembling the figures shown by most metallic meteorites. On heating such nuggets in a Bunsen burner blebs or blisters form on both the polished and unpolished surfaces, and on still more strongly heating these in some cases burst with sharp reports, and pieces of gold are projected with considerable violence. As no explosions have been observed on dissolving or eating away the crusts of these blisters by chlorine water it is thought that the blebs may probably be due to the evaporation of some liquid or solid substance. Further, in slicing some nuggets, scattered granules of quartz were met with inside, although quite invisible outside. At first it was supposed that such explosions might be due to the quartz, but the gas in some instances continued to issue from the burst bleb—where the aperture formed was small—and forced the Bunsen flame out into lateral, just as if urged by a blowpipe.

The Samoan Masoot.

In time of war it is the tapo's duty to lead on to combat the warriors of her village, and she is often in the thick of the skirmishing, but should she be wounded or killed it is a pure accident, as the Samoans have the greatest horror of hurting a woman in any way, and would not even injure their enemy's tapo. There is a story told of how, during the war which was carried on in Upolu for a considerable time, five or six years ago, two armies had met and were drawn up, blazing into each other's lines, when a native woman appeared with a cow she wished to place in safety. The entire firing was immediately suspended on both sides till she and her charge had crossed the lines and were completely out of harm's way.

The women could rely so thoroughly on the gallantry of their countrymen that they had no fear during the fighting, and would take food to their husbands and brothers at any time, and pass through the ranks of the warriors of the belligerent army with perfect impunity; as long as the daylight lasted and they could be easily seen they were quite safe—"In Stevenson's Samoa," Marie
